Imagine a single stocking system for car remotes that reduces your stocking requirement by hundreds of parts, gives you an estimated 80%+ coverage of factory keyless entry systems... all for under $3500! Through KeylessRide's extensive research and development efforts, you can have both high market coverage and a low up-front investment. Plus you'll have confidence in knowing that you are partnered with the industry leader!

KeylessRide's K2 Forge Plus system is a comprehensive package that includes the patented K2 Forge universal remote system. Plus it's bundled with a complementary assortment of popular integrated remote/keys for Chrysler/Dodge/Jeep, Nissan/Infiniti, GMC/Chevrolet/Buick and Honda!

The estimated resale value of included parts is over $6,250.00 with programming services, generating gross margins of approximately 45%!

Disclaimer

- Internet access is required and software download fees are assessed for K2 remote configuration.
- Part substitutions are an integral aspect of this system. In some applications, the referenced part may have slight differences from the manufacturer-specified part number including, but not limited to, variations in logo and button labels.
- To keep prices low, this system includes refurbished (B-stock) inventory.

*Programming instructions are included for on-board programmable vehicles that are covered by parts in the kit. Some parts require a scan tool for programming.
